

Coaches Testimonials

Joseph Leva – Coach – NY Yankees:

This is a truly spectacular event, where both the candidates and coaches are top notch. There's nobody better than Bob to put this all together and we look forward to working with Sports Business Solutions for a long time. I strongly endorse this program to anybody looking to break into the sports industry.

Corey Breton – Coach – Minnesota Timberwolves:

Between the quality of the candidates and coaches, this was a great event and we at the Timberwolves and Lynx are already looking forward to the next one. Great effort by the candidates and look forward to watching them land their start in the sports industry!

Chris Weddige – Coach – Atlanta Hawks:

Representing the Atlanta Hawks, the Minnesota Combine was extremely beneficial for all parties involved. The knowledge provided and gained by each candidate is priceless, and some candidates were even fortunate enough to leave with job offers. Through the leadership of Bob and the other sales managers on hand, candidates were given countless tools to be successful in the competitive and fruitful industry of sports sales. These events will only continue to grow and improve over time and I look forward to seeing this growth first hand.

Spencer Ambrosius – Coach – Cleveland Cavaliers:

As Manager of Inside Sales and Organizational Recruiting for the Cleveland Cavaliers, I look forward to attending these combines as a coach/recruiter. These event allows candidates to showcase their work ethic, coach ability, passion, attention to detail...etc. It is a much more thorough way to evaluate a candidate than a traditional interview. I plan on attending as many combines as possible in pursuit of hiring the best people for our team.

Ben Brown – Coach – Atlanta Hawks:

This is the best way for professional sports teams to recruit talent. I am confident that this event and future events will produce tomorrow's leaders in the sports industry. On behalf of the Atlanta Hawks, thank you!

Sean Sittnick – Coach – Minnesota United FC:

Could not have had a more informed opinion of candidates than I did after this event. Thanks to all who were a part of it. These events are certainly something I will be attending more regularly as I look to hire future rock stars in sales.
